SPECIAL NOTICE.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTION would respectfully call the attention of MERCHANTS' CLERKS and of the PUBLIC generally to the advantages to be derived from a Membership in this Institution. The LIBRARY, which is designed almost exclusively for circulation, now numbers between Fifty and Sixty Thousand Volumes, comprising works in every department of literature—the Mechanical Arts, and Natural Sciences. It is especially rich in American and English Literature, and contains works of History, Biography and Travels, in Periodical literature of the last hundred years, and with a careful selection of recent French, German and Spanish books. No work of sound merit is excluded, and such books as are in general request are added in proportion to the demand. To this the Board have made arrangements for adding to the Library, on the day of publication.

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY COPIES of MOTLEY'S forthcoming work.

"THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED NETHERLANDS," which will be ready for delivery on the morning of publication. Fifty additional copies of MOTLEY'S "HISTORY OF THE DUTCH REPUBLIC" will also be placed in the Library.

TERMS TO NORTH LIBRARY AND READING ROOM. To Merchants' Clerks, $1 Initiation Fee, and $2 a year; to all others $3 a year, in advance.

BULLETIN NO. FOUR. Containing a list of nearly Five Hundred Works of interest recently added, and of Duplicate Volumes, may be had at the Library—GRATIS.
